RECONNECT SMALL GROUP MINISTRY

Small groups are a great way to meet others in a safe environment to explore and challenge your faith. The groups will be meeting in homes or on campus each week following the same study guide. Each group is no larger than 10 people which provides the ability for everyone to share, form relationships, and deepen faith. Don't miss out on this great opportunity to meet as a faith community with people exploring their faith just like you.

To sign up or lead a Small Group, find us in the narthex at the weekend masses of February 10th and 11th. We will study The Beautiful Eucharist. For more information, contact Bob and Jennifer Raspa at raspa@bellsouth.net

RETURN YOUR PALMS

Please bring your palms from last year to the church and place them in the basket provided in the narthex by tomorrow, February 5th. They will be burned and the ashes will be used for Ash Wednesday.

GOSPEL REFLECTION

We see in today's gospel reading that the one to whom Jesus is first accountable is not those he heals and not Simon or his companions. Jesus's life is above all directed to God who is acting in him and through him, so early the next morning he seeks a place where he can be alone with God in prayer. Simon and some of his companions are described not as Jesus's "followers," but as those who "pursue" Jesus. There is a note of accusation and misunderstanding in Simon's words: "Everyone is looking for you" (including us!). There is no appreciation of Jesus's own need to search for his God in prayer.

What Jesus has heard in his prayer is the call to proclaim the reigning presence of God in other towns, to move on from the enthusiastic reception of yesterday, because that is why he came. How often are we tempted to stay with the "yesterdays" of success and acclamation and hesitate to go forward to the largely unknown "tomorrows" to which God is calling us? And how important is prayer in our discernment of God's call?

♦Jesus rises early and goes off "to a deserted place" to pray. Where and when do you find silence and solitude to be with God?

EXAMINATION OF CONSCIENCE

Preparing for Reconciliation

Confession (or "Reconciliation") is the Sacrament where you meet the Risen Jesus, who gave the Apostles -- the first priests -- the power to forgive sins in his name (Jn.20:23). First, ask the Holy Spirit to come into your heart to give you knowledge of your sins and courage to bring them to our Lord. He loves you, and deeply desires for you to come to him in humility so that he can free you of the burden of sin in your life -- that which is weighing you down. Reconciliation gives you the joy and consolation of God's love; it strengthens your relationship with Jesus Christ and his Church.

Prayer to Our Lady Before Confession:

Mary, Mother of Jesus,
your word in Scripture are:
"Do whatever he tells you."
Help me always strive to please your Son.

Facing sin in my Life

The world in which we live has lost its sense of sin. That which is evil is sometimes held to be something "good." Sin can have the power in our lives to blind us from seeing reality. If we examine our hearts, and ask the Holy Spirit to guide us, we begin to see ourselves as God sees us, and we recognize our need for forgiveness.

The Lord has a plan for your life. He has destined you for heaven! He has already moved you to look at this pamphlet! Take confidence then, when you examine your conscience, because God has sent his Son, Jesus Christ, to bring you back to Himself and to know His love and mercy.

Sin is the deliberate choice of something opposed to God's law of love in one's thoughts, words or deeds. God loves us and desires our holiness. He wants to give Himself to us...but we say "no" to Him through our sins. Sin is its own worst punishment. There are two kinds of sin: mortal and venial. Mortal (or serious) sin destroys love. It turns one away from God and community. It is a grave violation of God's Law. In order for a sin to be serious, the sinful act must be serious; the person had to have understood that it was seriously wrong; and the person had to have been free in committing the sin. So I cannot commit a serious (mortal) sin if the matter is not serious, if I did not know what I was doing, or if I did not act in full freedom. Venial sin is a minor offense against God that hurts our friendship with Him but does not destroy it.

When we go to Confession, the Lord strengthens us in our weakness, and our hearts are opened to receive the grace & mercy God desires to give us. Regular (or at least monthly) confession is an effective means in growing closer to Jesus Christ. Each time we celebrate this sacrament, we come to know more intensely what it means when St. Paul tells us we are "dead to sin and alive to God in Christ Jesus" (cf. Rom. 6:11).

Sorrow for Sin

We need to be sorry for our sins, yet confident in God's loving mercy when receiving the Sacrament of Reconciliation. This sorrow should include the resolve to avoid the sins committed as well as the persons, places and things that lead us to sin in the first place. If you know you have sinned but you lack sincere sorrow, consider the sufferings Jesus endured out of love for you. If you don't understand why something is actually sinful, ask the priest and he will help you.

Act of Contrition

"My God, I am sorry for my sins with all my heart. In choosing to do wrong and failing to do good, I have sinned against you whom I should love above all things. I firmly intend, with your help, to do penance, to sin no more, and to avoid whatever leads me to sin. Our Savior Jesus Christ suffered and died for us. In his name, my God, have mercy."

How to go to Confession

- Examine your conscience using this guide and call upon the Holy Spirit, be truly sorry for your sins, and resolve to change your life.
- Go to the priest, make the sign of the cross saying, "In the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit. Amen." It is then customary to tell the priest how long it has been since your last confession. The priest may respond by welcoming you. (it is helpful to then tell the priest your "state in life" -- e.g. single, married, teenager, etc.).
- Tell the priest about your sins. Tell him how you have sinned, and how often it happened. If you are not sure whether something is a sin, ask the priest. Tell him about your serious sins. It is also good to confess any of your less serious (venial) sins.
- Listen to the priest. He may offer you a verse from Scripture. If you have any questions about the Faith, how to grow in holiness, or whether something is a sin, feel free to ask him. The priest will then give you a penance, which is the first act of your "new life" after the Sacrament of Reconciliation.
- Play an act of contrition. Try to tell God "from your heart" that you are sorry and that you intend to sin no more (see sample "Act of Contrition" or you can make this prayer in your own words).
- Listen as the priest absolves you of your sins and enjoy the fact that God has truly freed you from all your sins.
- Do the penance the priest gives you. God's mercy does endure forever! Thank Him for what He has done for you.

If you are not sure of what to do, tell the priest and he will make it easier for you.

Our Bishop's Annual Stewardship Appeal (BASA) is now underway. If you are a registered member of our parish or another parish in our diocese, you may have received a mailing from Bishop Pohlmeier, asking for your support and participation in this year's Annual Appeal. Please prayerfully consider a pledge to the Appeal using gift options on the response card mailed to you or by completing a commitment envelope at Mass next weekend. Our annual theme, "We are the hands of Jesus" reminds us that our faith community is made up of a network of parishes. Bishop Pohlmeier invites each of us to join in support of the beautiful mission of the Church, as we are called to be good stewards of what we have been gifted with. We can proclaim His love and faithfulness through sharing the blessings we have gratefully received from Him. We ask that you commit this invitation to prayer and if your circumstances allow, please come prepared to respond next week. Your gift should be in addition to what you are already giving to the parish. Please know that every gift is important, especially as the Church continues to serve during these times of great need.
