GOSPEL REFLECTION

In the gospel, Jesus is approached by a leper. He makes no attempt to move away from him. How long had it been since the leper had felt the touch of another human being on his diseased flesh? After healing the man, Jesus tells him to observe the Mosaic Law by showing himself to a priest for the confirmation of his healing, and to offer a public sacrifice, and act of worship from which his leprosy had excluded him. Because he has touched the leper, according to the Law Jesus is also regarded as unclean and excluded. He has taken upon himself another's infirmity; in his passion and death he will be the Suffering Servant who bears all our infirmities and transgressions for the sake of our salvation (cf. Isa 53:4-5). Yet people still come to him, caring nothing for his "infection" and everything for his miraculous power. As those who come to Jesus, what are we seeking from him? Do we want to be infected with his compassion or with the miraculous? How does Jesus touch us—and how do we touch others?

♦We hear that Jesus is "moved with pity" at the plight of the leper and reaches out to touch him, breaking the law of the time. How as Christians shall we respond when laws, rules, or regulations stand in the way of compassion?

Living Liturgy for Extraordinary Ministers of the Holy Communion 2021

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

This week, we hope you will make a prayerful decision to pledge a gift to our 2024 Bishop's Annual Stewardship Appeal. Bishop Pohlmeier invites each of us to join as a faith community in support of the beautiful mission of our Church. As good stewards of God's gifts, giving and sharing of ourselves is how we can express gratitude for all our blessings.

Stewardship is an act of faith and should be at the heart of our lives as faithful and active members of our Church. It means we are ready to recognize all that we are and all that we have are gifts from God. Let us now ask what we can do for God.

CALLING ALL ARTISTS!

Artists of all ages, please use your medium of choice and create an image of our church. We will display for various events as we celebrate our 150th anniversary. Please send your creations to the parish office by March 29th. Please call the parish office for more information at (904) 284-3811.

RECONNECT SMALL GROUPS

Small groups are a great way to meet others in a safe environment to explore and challenge your faith. The groups will be meeting in homes or on campus each week following the same study guide. Each group is no larger than 10 people which provides the ability for everyone to share, form relationships, and deepen faith. Don't miss out on this great opportunity to meet as a faith community with people exploring their faith just like you.

To sign up or lead a Small Group, find us in the narthex at the weekend masses of February 10th and 11th. We will study The Beautiful Eucharist. For more information, contact Bob and Jennifer Raspa at raspa@bellsouth.net

This is an opportunity to awaken your faith, and increase your love & devotion to the Holy Eucharist. No registration or preparation is required to attend. Just come with the desire to learn about the perfect sacrificial offering & thanksgiving prayer instituted by Christ, with the Holy Spirit, to worship God the Father.

We are sorry for your loss, expressing sympathy is always difficult. The journey that you will be walking is painful. We want you to know that you are not alone, there are people that will walk with you through this journey. When you are ready to join a Grief Share Group that Sacred Heart Catholic Church offers, feel free to join us. The materials and issues that are covered are specifically designed to help you through the journey, the content is Christian based.

We meet once a week. You will be with others that are going through their journey. If you are not comfortable in sharing your thoughts and story, listening also helps. You may bring a loved one or friend. If any session is cancelled, you will be notified.

Our next session starts on Feb 22nd at 5:30 p.m. Feel free to contact Rachel Nieves at rachelnvs@gmail.com or Sharon Mullady at smullady\_52@hotmail.com. May God's love continue to comfort and strengthen you.

All are invited – Men and Women of Sacred Heart ... Come Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of your faithful and kindle in them the fire of your love. Send forth your Spirit and they shall be created, and you shall renew the face of the earth. O God, who by the light of the Holy Spirit instructs the hearts of the Faithful, grant that by that same Holy Spirit, we may be truly wise and ever rejoice in His consolations through Christ our Lord. Amen.

*Our next Ultreya for Sacred Heart will be Thursday, February 15th starting at 6 pm in the Activity Center. It is such a blessing to be able to come together in fellowship, great food, along with being able to have some small grouping (reunion) time to share.
