GOSPEL REFLECTION

If the gospel accounts stopped just after Jesus's entry into Jerusalem on Palm Sunday, how would you imagine the next few days playing out? The scene could easily be imagined as a hero's entry in advance of his great triumph soon to follow. When Jesus entered Jerusalem, his disciples must have felt the same weight of expectations, the portent of what Jesus's entry meant, not just for themselves, but for everyone. If Jesus was the promised Messiah, the events to come were not just concerned with the realities of one Passover in Jerusalem or the fate of the people of Judah but with the world and, yes, the world to come. What could one do but wait with sharp expectancy for events to unfold?

The passion narratives were the first part of each gospel to be written. They form the beating heart of what we believe about Jesus, the suffering servant of God, who made of his life a gift to God and to others- giving of himself in every moment through his healing, preaching, and welcoming the excluded until finally, on the cross, he gave his very life. Witnessing Jesus's last breath on the cross was enough for a centurion soldier to proclaim, "Truly this man was the Son of God!" May our own participation in the paschal mystery lead us to ever stronger faith in Jesus, the Son of the Blessed One.

At the Mount of Olives, Jesus tells the disciples, "All of you will have your faith shaken." What role does questioning or doubt have in the spiritual life?

Divine Mercy Explained

Jesus wants that the Feast of Mercy be "a refuge and shelter for all souls, and especially for sinners" Diary #69

The soul should go to confession in preparation for this day, the important condition is that your soul is in grace when you receive Holy communion on the feast day in order that you may obtain complete forgiveness of sins and punishment.

HOW TO OBSERVE THE FEAST DAY OF DIVINE MERCY * The Feast should be preceded by a Novena of Chaplets, starting on Good Friday.

* The Feast of Mercy is to be celebrated on the Sunday after Easter and you should be at the Celebration in a church to receive this grace.

* The sermon by the priest on that day should be on the Mercy of God.

* That we contemplate on this day the Mystery of our Redemption as the greatest Revelation of Divine Mercy
* The Image of Divine Mercy is to be ceremoniously blessed by the priest on that day

* The Image should be exposed and publicly venerated by all who attend.

* Confession in preparation for the day. The soul must be in grace when receiving communion.

* An act of mercy should take place in our lives in preparation for the day (forgiving and comforting, corporal works of mercy, and prayers for mercy for the world.)
